Re: _____

The person whose name appears above is applying for enlistment in the United States Coast Guard and has submitted your name as a reference.

In order to assist us in evaluating the applicant's potential for enlisted service, it is requested that you complete the form on the reverse side of this letter and return it in the enclosed postage free envelope.

The Privacy Act requires that the information you provide on this form be disclosed to the applicant on request, unless you desire that your identity remain confidential. If you check the box in line 25 on the reverse of this form, you are granted such a pledge of confidentiality.

The guidelines below are furnished to assist you in evaluating the applicant's personal characteristics and to standardize the grading to the greatest extent possible:

Outstanding - Well above average. Very few superiors.

Good - Generally above average.

Average - Equal to the majority of persons in the applicant's age and experience groups.

Satisfactory - Generally below average, but acceptable.

Unsatisfactory - Not acceptable.

The information you furnish will be held in strictest confidence. A prompt reply will enable us to process the application more efficiently.

Your interest and cooperation in this matter will be greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,
